

Mind-defying architecture...

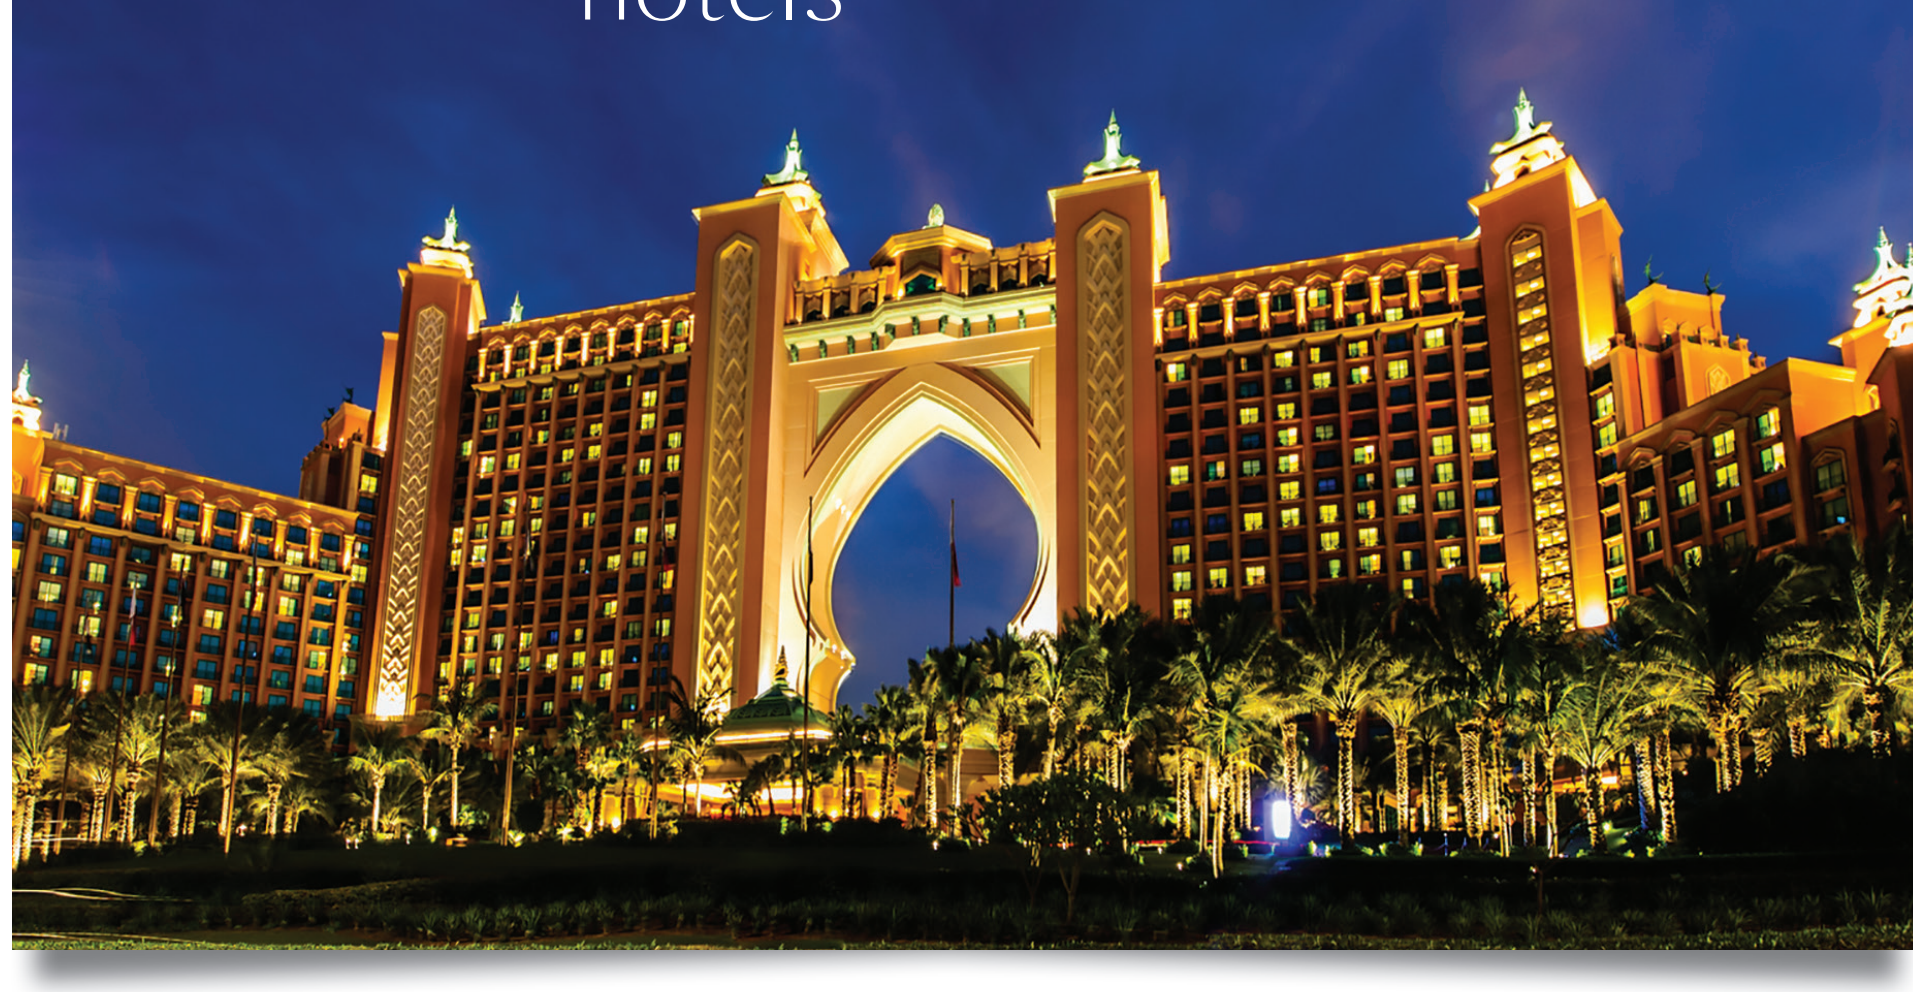

Jewel in the Emirates.

Dubai is a cosmopolitan metropolis, a city of fascinating contrasts, a distinctive blend of East and West, old and new.

...the largest malls

...luxurious hotels

...endless golden beaches

Passengers can discover out-of-this-world extravagance at man-made resorts and delve into enchanting Arabian traditions at bustling souks and markets.

During the course of their World and Exotic Cruises both Queen Mary 2 and Queen Elizabeth touch the glamorous shores of Dubai, our flagship even stays overnight giving passengers the chance to explore more of this extraordinary city.

A city of superlatives.

The highest high tea in the world.
Passengers can continue their daily afternoon tea ritual ashore on the 122nd floor of The Burj Khalifa. The tallest building in the world offers views stretching all the way out into the desert.

The world's largest dancing fountain.
The Dubai Fountain shoots water jets as high as a 50-storey building, all whilst dancing to the classics of Lionel Richie and Whitney Houston.

The biggest shopping mall in the world.
At the size of 50 football pitches, The Dubai Mall is much more than a shopping destination – it's an experience not to be missed! Yes, there are over 1,200 shops to discover but there's also an Aquarium, Ice Rink, luxury hotel and hundreds of eateries.

The world's largest artificial island.
Visible from space and regarded as the 8th wonder of the world, The Jumeirah Palm Island features themed hotels, beaches, marinas, restaurants, and a variety of shopping boutiques.

