If you want time away to be about leaving everyday life far behind, a Cunard cruise might just be your idea of a perfect holiday. Our three magnificent ships visit the finest destinations in the world and guarantee you total relaxation with their incomparable facilities and White Star Service. They each offer so much space for you to relax and enjoy your holiday along with endless diversions to keep you entertained – ranging from state of the art spas and grand theatres to celebrity guest speakers and exquisite dining. You set your own balance between being relaxed and being sociable, with service that always feels far from the ordinary. It's simply a matter of deciding which Cunard cruise will most encourage you to leave it all behind.

Between January 2014 and early January 2015, our three magnificent ships can show you incredible places across Europe and around the world. From buzzing cities to silent scenery that takes your breath away. All this in total comfort and complete luxury. They will also capture the imagination with their own spectacular celebrations in 2014.

In 2014 you can look forward to a new full season of QUEEN ELIZABETH Mediterranean Cruises, offering the very best choice of holidays to explore this wonderful region. In addition QUEEN MARY 2 will be celebrating her 10th Anniversary year with a variety of special cruises and events, and QUEEN VICTORIA will offer a full range of cruises sailing from Southampton.

2014 HIGHLIGHTS

Celebrate QUEEN MARY 2's 10th Anniversary when our three Queens meet in Southampton on 9 May 2014.

QUEEN ELIZABETH operates a NEW full season of Mediterranean Cruises offering a choice of seven, 14 or 21-night holidays

QUEEN VICTORIA enjoys a full season of cruises sailing roundtrip from Southampton to Iberia, the Baltic, the Fjords and Mediterranean.

- During her Around the British Isles cruise (23 May 2014) she will celebrate the 100th Anniversary of Aquitania's maiden voyage during her overnight call in Liverpool.

QUEEN MARY 2 in her 10th Anniversary year offers a choice of 19 Transatlantic Crossings. We will celebrate her 10th Anniversary during two crossings – westbound between Southampton and New York on 9 May and eastbound between New York and Southampton on 16 May. In addition, two crossings include calls to Halifax, the birthplace of Sir Samuel Cunard.

- Short break cruises between Southampton and Hamburg with an option to extend your holiday with a two night stay in this elegant and vibrant city.

These are only a few of our 2014 highlights, see the following pages for full details of our cruises.

A welcome like no other

QUEEN ELIZABETH, QUEEN VICTORIA and QUEEN MARY 2 are truly remarkable. Their elegant lines capture exactly what a classic ocean liner should look like. No wonder the spotlight often falls upon them in overseas ports. Their very arrival and departure creates excitement. It's something you'll especially appreciate once on board. Standing on deck and waving farewell, you can hear chatter filled with anticipation. That's how all Cunard holidays start, on every ship. Here's a quick introduction to each Queen and where she'll be between January 2014 and early January 2015.

QUEEN ELIZABETH is wonderfully modern, with beautiful Art Deco detailing. In January 2014, she starts a 118-night circumnavigation visiting 40 ports in 23 countries, which includes her first ever visit to Japan. Returning in May 2014, she then embarks on a new full season of Mediterranean Cruises, stretching right to the beginning of December. This offers the perfect combination of the very best Mediterranean destinations with an incredible choice of seven, 14 and 21 night holidays, before two short cruises and an Atlantic Isles festive season.

QUEEN VICTORIA is graceful and luxurious, today's version of great liners past. In January 2014, she seeks out the sights – and winter sunshine – of South America, Australia, Pacific islands and North America on her World Voyage. During 2014, a series of no-fly cruises explores Baltic shores, Norway's fjords, Iceland, the Mediterranean and Iberia and the Canary Islands – where she spends Christmas before a five-night New Year celebration closer to home.

QUEEN MARY 2 is our flagship, grander than any other Cunard liner, where innovation and style sit side by side. She starts 2014 – her 10th anniversary year – in some style, circling the continents on her latest World Voyage, returning to a rendezvous with both sisters for one of the very few times in history on 9 May 2014. From May to January 2015, she crosses the Atlantic 19 times, some with calls to Halifax, just as she – and Cunard – always has done. Northern Europe, North America and the Caribbean will also welcome her next year.

You may wonder why our three ships are so special. Like all sisters, they have their own unique personality – and possess strong family traits, including the famous red and black funnel, a symbol that hints at the elegance on board.

QUEEN ELIZABETH

Your elegant retreat on the high seas

Welcome to the third Cunard ship named QUEEN ELIZABETH. Modern and spacious, she has everything you'd wish for from a ship that travels both across to the Continent and around the entire world. She's designed for entertainment. From the sanctuary of her 6,000-book library to the show-stopping Royal Court Theatre, where her new show, Palladium Nights, showcases the songs of the Sixties and Seventies. She's sociable too. The intimate, lively Yacht Club may become a firm favourite among her evening venues, although there are always plenty to choose from.

Games Deck

Should your cruise carry you into warmer seas, the outdoors comes to the fore. The Promenade Deck is as perfect for a stroll as its name suggests, and a superb spot to sit and watch the scenery drift by. QUEEN ELIZABETH is a remarkably sociable ship. It's always good to mingle in her elegant public rooms and outdoor spaces, such as her innovative Games Deck shaded beneath a canopy and with a garden-like feel, its 'lawn' always ready for a game of croquet or paddle tennis. And you could think of the Garden Lounge as your conservatory. Though in this conservatory, beside the Pavilion Pool, live bands play from time to time creating a perfect setting for those social evening occasions.

Besides the three main restaurants, you can always choose to dine 'out' on QUEEN ELIZABETH. This may mean lunch or dinner at the Verandah Restaurant (recognised as the best restaurant at sea) for a delicious taste of France. Among other options, our Lido Restaurants offer buffet dining all day, with additional alternative dining options each evening. Asado is a sizzling South American grill. Jasmine has menus drawn from across Asia. Aztec adds its own twist to Mexican classics. It's a delicious decision to make.

Royal Spa

Balcony Stateroom

Your luxurious window on the world

QUEEN VICTORIA is exactly what a Cunard ship should be. Sleek and contemporary, her red and black exterior adds a classic touch. Inside is all about warmth and luxury. Marbles and woods create elegance, plush carpets and fabrics ensure premium comfort. Privacy and intimacy live side by side with the sense of occasion you might expect of a Cunard cruise.

The Queens Room is an excellent example. At first glance, the dramatic chandeliers and arched balconies catch the attention. A closer look will reveal three original etchings by Queen Victoria and Prince Albert. And it's this combination of grandeur and detail that really enhances the luxury. You'll find it too in the Royal Court Theatre. Rising the height of three decks in reds and gold, this is an already incredible venue. The first ever private boxes at sea add an extra dash of glamour to each dazzling show.

QUEEN VICTORIA has an elegant, easy-going charm. She is designed for your enjoyment with all the amenities you would expect, and some that are more surprising, like fencing lessons.

You may also love her Winter Garden. All light and relaxation, it's a fusion of indoors and outdoors, especially when the glass roof opens on sunnier days.

Exploring the many dining options is also a daily treat. Perhaps it'll be in our fine dining alternative restaurant, with its fresh Mediterranean dishes and themed events that feature local wines. Part of the Lido transforms each evening into one of three wonderful venues. Bamboo offers a fusion of Asian flavours. Coriander serves mouthwatering Indian cuisine. Prime is the spot for succulent steaks and seafood. Needless to say, a host of other casual options are available too during each waking moment on board.

QUEEN VICTORIA

QUEEN MARY 2

Our incomparable liner is yours to discover

In January 2014, ten years will have passed since QUEEN MARY 2 set sail for the first time. Her scale and elegance makes her as much of an attraction today, wherever she goes. Just ask those who flock to see her arrive in ports across the world.

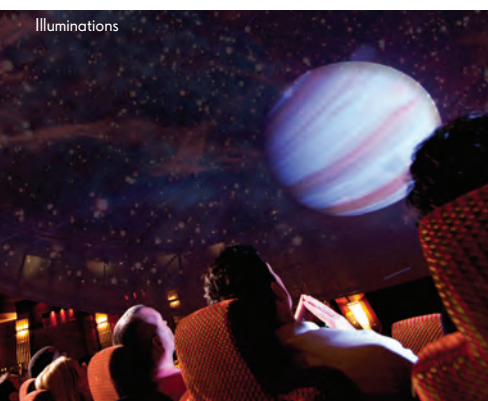

Celebrating her 10th Anniversary year in 2014, QUEEN MARY 2 still stands apart for the incredible variety of entertainment you'll find on board. Grand and spacious, she is an extraordinary ship where you'll feel perfectly at home. Of course, the real way to experience this first lady of the fleet is to travel on board. Her size translates into an impressive feeling of space. The Queens Room, a hive of sociable activity day and night, fills the height of two decks. Sweeping staircases and soaring columns ensures the Britannia Restaurant makes a bold statement. The Royal Court Theatre also has two tiers, with a rich interior reminiscent of a London playhouse. Illuminations is more than a luxurious cinema. It's also a planetarium and a venue for classical music lovers to watch virtuoso performances. For the ultimate in relaxation, succumb to the exquisite pampering with our exceptionally spacious Canyon Ranch SpaClub®.

Many lounges and bars – like the Commodore Club and Chart Room – are cosy and intimate, ideal for a catch-up with friends.

Your table is always reserved in your main restaurant. For a change of culinary scene, there's Todd English Restaurant, a vibrant taste of the Mediterranean. By evening, Kings Court transforms and becomes one of four alternative dining venues. La Piazza serves delicious Italian dishes. The Carvery offers a selection of traditional British dishes. Lotus combines subtle flavours from across Asia. Chef's Galley has a unique twist, as it includes lively cooking demonstrations. With more informal options also available, like the Golden Lion Pub and the Boardwalk Café, our flagship will always satisfy your taste for the exceptional.

Daytime activities, from the energetic to the relaxed

On our ships, no two days are ever quite the same. That's down to the huge number of activities on offer. These allow you to decide how any given hour will unfold – enriching, strenuous or seriously pampered. Of course, you don't have to do anything.

Aerobics, yoga or sunrise stretch classes on deck are just some excuses to take in the morning air. Later, tango and line dancing classes are energetic and fun. The daily crossword sharpens the mind. You may drop by the wine-tasting seminar in the afternoon, while the secrets of auctioneering or weather forecasting are revealed during today's Cunard's Insights workshops. Some activities you'll only find on certain ships. Like QUEEN ELIZABETH's unique art tour or her panel quiz shows, specially written during your voyage. Fencing lessons provide a chance to try something new on QUEEN VICTORIA or the Nordic Walking poles on QUEEN ELIZABETH offer a sociable occasion for exercise.

QUEEN MARY 2 offers 3D film screenings that include the latest blockbusters and operatic masterpieces.

If today is about taking it easy, the blissful spa can indulge you with its menu of massages and uplifting treatments. You'll never be short of holiday reading either. The impressive library sees to that, and the Book Club is meeting later for an informal chat over a cappuccino. In warm weather, the spacious open deck is always inviting – maybe for a dip in the outdoor pool before tea. The shuffleboard tournament is also starting soon. The best part is that, having done so much (or so wonderfully little) throughout the day, a glittering evening still lies ahead.

Evenings are when the famous Cunard glamour really shines. After a busy afternoon's exploration ashore, you're invited to a Sailaway Party. Or, when your day on board draws to a close, there's plenty of time for a pre-dinner drink. Maybe the Martini menu will catch your eye in your favourite bar.

Later, recitals on the harp or the piano create a soothing mood, part of an extensive calendar of classical concerts. Or mellow jazz might be more your scene. Some nights, the comedian brings laughter to the bill; on others the magician will amaze you. The Royal Court Theatre is always the backdrop to pure drama. In these lavish venues, thrilling musical extravaganzas and abridged versions of classic plays light up the stage. Private boxes on QUEEN VICTORIA and QUEEN ELIZABETH allow you to reserve the best seats in the house. You can even sip your interval drink in the reserved lounge.

Over in the traditional Golden Lion pub, the spotlight might switch to you, as you interpret a track or two during a lively karaoke event. Afterwards, how about some late night trivia or a spin of the roulette wheel in the casino? You may, of course, be in the mood for dancing. Tonight the atmospheric nightclub could be playing anything from rock anthems to the hits of the 1970s right through to today's modern sounds. Our black tie evenings remain a highlight of every cruise, with themes ranging from Starlight Balls to 'London Swings', a celebration of 1960s styles set within the double height Queens Room.

The Queens Grill experience

A supreme service defines every moment in Queens Grill accommodation as you appreciate personal butler service and the arrival of pre-dinner canapés without the need to ask, while formal nights bring a turndown treat. You can even expect preferential disembarkation and tender services, both in ports of call and at the end of your truly sensational voyage.

Consistently rated among the very finest gastronomic experiences on land or at sea, each award-winning Queens Grill restaurant provides a compelling reason why guests in Queens Grill accommodation (Q1-Q7), our highest category, return year after year. Every evening between 6.30pm and 9.00pm, the Maitre d' greets guests personally by name and your waiter shows you to your reserved table adorned with crisp damask, glinting crystal and polished silver.

Your specific preferences are always remembered and anticipated, though should you wish to venture off-menu our talented chefs will endeavour to fulfil any request. If you wish to dine in the comfort of your own suite, you can choose from the full Queens Grill menu. The Queens Grill difference will have already become apparent, courtesy of priority luggage delivery and a complimentary bottle of champagne to welcome you aboard. Superbly sumptuous suites occupy 506 to 2,249 square feet in the most enviable locations on the ship, coupled with a private balcony that is perfect for relaxing or hosting impromptu soirées.

The Princess Grill experience

Sophisticated yet understated, our single-seating Princess Grill restaurants promise our guests staying in Princess Suites (P1-P2) dining which is virtually unrivalled on land, between 6.30pm and 9.00pm each evening. Peruse mouth-watering menus created with immense culinary flair and the freshest ingredients; to accompany your choice, our sommelier will gladly share recommendations from the superbly stocked wine cellar.

In warmer climes QUEEN ELIZABETH and QUEEN VICTORIA guests may also opt for al fresco dining in the Courtyard. Close by, a refined, exclusively reserved lounge hosts Afternoon Tea poured by white-gloved waiters, pre-dinner drinks or a sociable night cap. Our Princess Grill accommodation offers a liberating sense of space of 335 to 513 square feet. Each suite is a welcoming home from home, with abundant storage, a marble bathroom featuring both a bath and shower, a separate living area and your own private balcony, a perfect place to unwind.

With space comes impeccable service. From priority embarkation, your concierge will gladly attend to any requests, whether stocking your bar to your tastes or helping you to plan your trips ashore. You'll notice other delightful flourishes too: a bottle of wine to greet you; personalised stationery on your desk; fresh fruit replenished daily and a pillow concierge menu offering nine different styles.

The Britannia experience

You'll appreciate details that make such a difference: the bath robe, slippers and a nightly turndown service with pillow chocolate. While guests in AA and AC Club Balcony category staterooms can also select from a pillow concierge menu, and catch the sea breezes on their own private balcony.

Each evening, guests in Britannia staterooms will look forward to exquisite menus, exceptional standards of service and an exciting sense of occasion in their Art Deco-style restaurant. After all, whether dining at 6.00pm or later at 8.30pm, you can anticipate arriving with a graceful descent of the grand staircase that evokes the glamour and grandeur of great liners past.

Guests in AA and AC Club Balcony staterooms can dine at a time of their choosing between 6.30pm and 9.00pm in the Britannia Club restaurant on board QUEEN MARY 2 or, aboard QUEEN ELIZABETH, in a separate, intimate dining salon whose patterned glass ceilings are flecked with gold and silver leaf. Comfortable and stylish, your choice of stateroom shall be your inviting haven for the duration of your memorable voyage. Here, settle down to a favourite movie on your television with satellite channels and music, or plan tomorrow's sociable activities using the daily ship board newspaper, delivered to your door each evening.
