CUNARD

January 2015 – January 2016

QUEEN ELIZABETH

QUEEN MARY 2

QUEEN VICTORIA

Welcome.

I've been at the helm of Cunard's magnificent ships for a while now, but the sight of the distinctive red and black funnel against the skyline continues to attract attention wherever we dock.

Cruising is the best way to see the world and Cunard has been learning its trade since 1840. We celebrate our 175th Anniversary in 2015, and there are many exciting events and special cruises lined up. You'll find more details of these as well as many others inside this brochure, and that's what makes Cunard so special.

We're ready to go. All that remains is for you to decide where you'd like us to take you.

Commodore Christopher Rynd

2015 Highlights.

2015 is a very significant year for us as we celebrate our 175th Anniversary. We have a number of very special events and cruises planned – culminating with a re-creation of the first sailing by Queen Mary 2 on 4 July 2015 – exactly 175 years to the day after our first ship, Britannia, set sail. Celebrations will begin in our homeport of Southampton on 3 May 2015 before Liverpool hosts the three Queens on 25 May 2015 for what promises to be a spectacular day of events in Cunard's birthplace.

The rest of 2015 is equally tantalising, with eight maiden ports of call including Oban in the Scottish Highlands and the Côte d'Azur resort of St Raphael. Queen Elizabeth will sail out of Southampton, visiting the Baltic, Mediterranean, Fjords, Atlantic Isles, Iceland, and the Caribbean. She will also offer a number of short breaks to Hamburg, Bruges, St Peter Port and Amsterdam.

Queen Victoria will spend her time exploring the Mediterranean from Athens, Rome, Venice or Istanbul. There is the opportunity to spend seven, 14 or 21 nights discovering Greek islands, the Italian Coast, the Black Sea and Mediterranean resorts.

Meanwhile our flagship, Queen Mary 2, will undertake 20 Transatlantic Crossings – that most iconic of journeys, sailing between Southampton and New York, with a small number of Crossings also offering calls to Halifax and Boston en route. She will also sail around the British Isles and offer short breaks to Hamburg throughout the year.

With so much to celebrate, 2015 promises to be a year to remember.

Queen Elizabeth

A classic name, a modern spirit.

Christened by her namesake, Her Majesty The Queen, in October 2010, Queen Elizabeth is the newest Cunard ship and the third to bear the name. Modern and spacious, she has everything you'd wish for on board.

Designed for your pleasure.

You can lose yourself on board, strolling beside the sea on the Promenade Deck, browsing the library with over 6,000 books to choose from, or playing croquet on the 'lawn' of the Games Deck. It's always so easy to socialise, whether you're relaxing in the conservatory-style Garden Lounge, listening to a band playing beside the pool or dancing in the Yacht Club.

Dining out on board.

As well as the three main restaurants, you can sample the Mexican flavours of Aztec, the Asian menus of Jasmine, Asada's South American Grill and the all-day buffets of the Lido restaurant. Then there's the French cuisine of The Verandah restaurant, with its acclaimed menu.

Where you can go.

Circle the globe on Queen Elizabeth's World Cruise starting in January 2015. Cruises from Southampton to the Mediterranean and northern Europe might tempt you during 2015, so too a Caribbean holiday and several short cruises.

Queen Victoria

A favourite of our fleet.

Queen Victoria is exactly what a Cunard ship should be. She's sleek and contemporary, with a traditional red and black exterior. Inside is all about warmth and luxury, privacy and comfort.

Designed for your pleasure.

The Queens Room is the heart of the ship, where you can enjoy our signature Afternoon Tea, dance all evening and even take fencing lessons. You can settle into a seat in a private box – the first at sea – in the Royal Court Theatre or relax in the Winter Garden where the indoors meets the outdoors, especially when the glass roof opens on sunnier days.

Dining out on board.

Your reserved table in your main restaurant is just one of so many tasty options. The Verandah restaurant offers inventive French inspired fine dining. Part of the Lido transforms each evening into one of three venues. Bamboo offers Asian fusion, Coriander serves Indian cuisine and Prime is the spot for succulent steaks and seafood.

Where you can go.

In January 2015 Queen Victoria's World Cruise takes her to Australia and New Zealand and back via the Americas. In the second half of 2015, you can explore the Mediterranean.

Queen Mary 2

Our eye-catching flagship.

Since her launch in January 2004, Queen Mary 2 has been creating a stir wherever she arrives. Her scale and elegance see to that. That sense of being in the limelight can add to the excitement of your cruise. And her size means she offers you an impressive amount of space in which to unwind.

Designed for your pleasure.

Queen Mary 2 is wonderfully grand. In her Queens Room, the largest dance floor at sea will be the setting for nights you'll long remember. Illuminations is a luxurious 3D cinema, a planetarium and a classical music venue. Of course, you can always find a quieter corner, like the elegant Commodore Club and Chart Room, ideal for a catch-up with friends.

Dining out on board.

For a change of culinary scene, you could treat yourself in the renowned Todd English restaurant, offering a zesty taste of the Mediterranean. By evening, a corner of Kings Court becomes one of three mini-restaurants. La Piazza offers delicious Italian dishes, The Carvery is traditionally British and Lotus serves up flavours from across Asia.

Where you can go.

In 2015 Queen Mary 2 heads back and forth on Transatlantic Crossings between Southampton and New York. The Mediterranean, Northern Europe, the Canaries, Canada and the Caribbean also welcome her several times. From January to May 2015, she will circle the continents on her World Cruise.

Make today the day you learn to tango.

Enriching daytimes at your pace.

Every day of your cruise is an invitation, an opportunity. There's always something new to try, from fencing to watercolour painting to short mat bowls. Tango lessons start soon, followed by a Pilates session later. Your cruise can also be the moment you brush up on your French or photography skills. Martini mixology and wine tasting are among almost countless other options. You can always find time for your favourite pastimes too, like bridge, cinema or watching live sport. When you want to up the pace, the gym is only moments away. Or you could simply indulge in doing no more than sitting on deck taking it all in. As for everything else, well, there's simply too much to list here.

Every evening is a real event.

The Royal Court Theatre offers the best seats in the house for lighthearted comedies, serious dramas, Shakespeare classics and spectacular musical productions. The casino is waiting when you feel lucky, and you can always go dancing until you can dance no more. Live music takes many forms, from the resident bands to jazz ensembles to classical recitals. A casual catch-up with friends over a drink or two is often the perfect way to round things off for the evening. And tomorrow can be a day of sheer indulgence...

World & Exotic Cruises 2015

- QUEEN ELIZABETH 10 January to 3 May 2015
112-night Cruise
- QUEEN VICTORIA 20 January to 3 May 2015
103-night Cruise
- QUEEN MARY 2 10 January to 3 May 2015
113-night Cruise
- More than one ship calls at this destination

Imagine the feeling of knowing the whole world lies ahead of you, just waiting to be explored. Dipping your feet in Polynesian lagoons. Listening to the sounds of the Costa Rican rainforest. Having your picture taken in front of the Sydney Opera House. Walking along bustling Asian streets before removing your shoes to visit tranquil temples. Scanning the African savannah for lions and rhino. Standing among the incredible legacy of Egyptian pharaohs. This is just a hint of what a Cunard World Cruise can show you. In early January 2015, our three ships set off on a grand sweep around several continents, including Queen Elizabeth's classic westbound circumnavigation. Each World Cruise lasts nearly four months and you'll bring home a thousand memories to an incredible finale: the meeting of all three ships in Southampton. You can always choose from shorter options too, making it a wonderful opportunity for some winter sunshine.
